Mike,

I think dick is calling in. This is both do to winter travel concerns and my stinginess until we get the project moved to special. The bulk account was minimally funded this year and we are stretching very well . What is key to me (and Dick) is what conclusions are being drawn from the investigation and do they make sense.

Thanks Dick, do you plan on joining us at Columbia Falls on the afternoon of the 16th and 17th of January? To discuss the next steps for the site.
